Exotic Atmosphere at Volunteer Installation

Moose Lodge Sets Installation Date

Douglas Dixon, governor-elect, and the other new officers of the Torrance Moose lodge will be installed in public ceremonies to be conducted in the lodge hall, 1744 W. Carson St., Torrance, next Saturday, April 22, at 7:30 p.m.

Dixon and his wife, Lillian, reside at 213 W. 214th St., in the Keystone (Carson) area.

Participating in the program creating a panel of officers will be George W. Clay, junior Governor; William Davis, treasurer; Carl Fisher, prelate; Art Galinsky, Joe Marley, and George Schneider, trustees; Dan Desmond, Sgt.-at-arms; Mel Coates, inner guard; Newton, Mazzola, outer guard; James A. Evans, Secretary; and Dan Hutchinson, past governor.

The following committee chairmen, appointed by Dixon during the past week, will assume their new responsibilities effective May 1: C. R. Britt, Jr., membership; Joseph Platt, public relations; Joe Marley, civic affairs; Mike Cicero, activities; Dan Hutchinson, conservation; Hank Kolter, dance; Carl Fisher, entertainment; and Carter Dow, auditing. James McCune was re-appointed to the post of club steward, and James H. Johnston will continue as club secretary.

An exotic island atmosphere will greet those of the Volunteers of Harbor General Hospital who attend the installation luncheon set for 12:30 p.m. today at the Jump 'N Jack restaurant, 2900 Pacific Coast Highway, Torrance.

Traditional leis and muumuu are the fashionable attire for the affair. Authentic dances will be presented by Miss Lei Lani York and her Polynesian troupe from Ileana Ballroom studio, Lomita.

Mrs. Marguerite Broen McAllister, chief of patient services at the hospital, will install Mrs. Rollin Ring as president.

Other officers include Mmes. Evert Allen, E. Robert Hoppe, Joseph Jay, vice president; Charles Pfeffer, treasurer; Richard Barry, recording secretary; and Warren Melching, corresponding secretary.

Douglas C. Sheppard, associated with Simmons Institute, will be the guest speaker and he has chosen "Courtney Is Contagious" for his topic.
